Flights Terms & Conditions

Flight Changes & Cancellations:

- Flight Status: Check flight status/schedules 24 hours before departure as airline schedules may change without notice.
- Airline Schedule Changes, Cancellations & Re-routing: Airlines retain the right to reschedule, change routes, or cancel flights independent of, and without prior intimation to, 30 Sundays. 30 Sundays acts as a facilitator for flight bookings and is not liable for any loss, direct or incidental, caused by airline schedule changes, delays, or cancellations. Where rescheduling or rebooking on the same or a different airline becomes necessary, the fare difference and any rescheduling fees will be borne by you (the traveller). We will share the new fare for your approval before proceeding; if you decline, you may opt instead for a refund of the original ticket per the airline's policy.

Refunds:

- Cancellation Refunds: In case of a flight cancellation initiated by you, any refunds will be processed as per the airline's cancellation policy. The refund amount may vary based on the time of cancellation and the airline's specific rules.
- Processing Time: Refunds typically take 7-21 working days from the date of cancellation but may vary depending on the airline's policies and procedures.

Baggage Allowance:

- Standard Baggage: Baggage allowance varies based on the airline and ticket class. It is the traveler's responsibility to confirm the baggage policy before travel.
- Excess Baggage: Any excess baggage beyond the allowable limit will incur additional charges as per the airline's policy, which must be borne by the traveler.

Name Changes & Corrections:

- Spelling Errors: Name changes or corrections after the ticket has been issued are subject to the airline's rules. Some airlines do not allow name changes, and reissuing the ticket may incur additional charges or result in the cancellation of the original ticket.

No-Show Policy:

- Non-Refundable: If a passenger does not check in or board the flight as per the airline's guidelines (no-show), the ticket is typically non-refundable, and the full fare may be forfeited as per the airline's policy.

Important Notes:

- Flight Status: Travelers are responsible for checking flight status (e.g., delays, rescheduling) 24 hours before departure.
- Missed Flights: We are not responsible for missed flights due to personal reasons, including delays in reaching the airport, incorrect travel dates, or any failure to comply with airline check-in requirements.
- Connecting Flights: For itineraries involving connecting flights, the traveler must ensure adequate time for layovers. We are not responsible for missed connections due to delays or other unforeseen circumstances.

Travel Documents:

- Passport and Visa: It is the traveler's responsibility to carry a valid passport, visa (if applicable), and any other required travel documents. Airlines may refuse boarding without the proper documentation, for which we are not liable.
